

Matthew Sam

(484) 929-5461 | mfs323@lehigh.edu
Bethlehem, PA

www.linkedin.com/in/matthew-sam2001

Education

Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania
Bachelor of Science in Business and Economics
Major in Finance
Bachelor of Science in Business and Economics
Major in Business Analytics
Minor in Spanish

Expected in May 2023
GPA: 3.45

Colegio Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Lima, Peru
International Baccalaureate Program (IB DP)

June 2019
May 2019

Experience

Golden Investment S.A
Financial Management Analyst Intern

June 2022 - August 2022

- Managed a sales alliance with a food distribution company, Rappi, in order to reduce transaction fees for customers by 3%. This strategy resulted in additional sales and increased profitability for Golden Investment S.A and Rappi.
- Analyzed current restaurant sales for Golden Investment S.A which led to an alliance with an international bank, BBVA, resulting in special discounts for the latter's executive clients.
- Directed a team project that consisted of calculating the new break-even point for the firm, which was then approved and adopted by the board of directors, allowing them to determine new possible investment projects.

Coursework

FIN 323 Investments
FIN 328 Corporate Financial Policy
FIN 324 Security Analysis and Portfolio
FIN 330 Financial Markets and Institutions
FIN 333 Global Finance
FIN 335 Advanced Topics - Financial Modeling
FIN 337 Financial Market Regulation and Innovation
FIN 377 Data Science for Finance
BIS 324 Business Data Management
BIS 348 Predictive Analysis in Business
BIS 335 Application Development for Business
BUAN 352 Business Analytics and Modeling
BUAN 357 Artificial Intelligence for Business

Language Proficiency

Spanish, Native/Bilingual Proficiency
English, Native/Bilingual Proficiency

Technical Skills

Advanced: Web SQL, R, R-Studio, Python, Java, Netbeans IDE and Excel